Design Rationale:

Multi-Phase Campaign Integration

Our digital strategy utilizes a targeted funnel where every social media touchpoint and newsletter is designed to drive traffic back to our central hub: the Burnt Cones Website.

- Phase 1: The Teaser (Newsletter 1): This initial communication focuses on curiosity and community building. It utilizes a "Join the Community" CTA to drive traffic to the website's landing page, specifically targeting Jonas (The Value-Conscious Student) who seeks exclusive membership perks.
- Phase 2: The Authority (Newsletter 2): This phase establishes brand trust by sharing the founders' story and Italian craftsmanship. The "Join the Journey" CTA leads users to an "About Us" section on the site, fulfilling the "Consideration" needs of Guan Ling (The Practical Professional) by proving product consistency.

- Phase 3: The Conversion (Newsletter 3): Our final "Grand Launch" edition creates urgency with an "Order Now" CTA. This integrates directly with the website's sales page to maximize immediate conversion and foot traffic during the launch weekend.

Strategic SEO Implementation

To ensure the Burnt Cones website is discoverable by our target personas during their search for new dessert experiences, Aura Creative has implemented a comprehensive Search Engine Optimization framework:

- Keyword Optimization: We have integrated high-intent keywords such as "Artisanal Gelato Singapore," "Slow-burnt waffle cones," and "Unique dessert experiences" throughout the website's headers and meta-descriptions.
- Local SEO: Given that our personas like Malcolm and Guan Ling rely on Google Maps for discovery, we have optimized our Google Business listing to ensure it appears in "Gelato near me" searches for the West Singapore region.
- Visual SEO: Recognizing the "Aesthetic Appeal" of the product, all image assets (such as the "Heart-Burnt" cones) include alt-text descriptors. This ensures our content appears in visual search results, capturing the attention of the "Aesthetic Foodie" persona.
